SUGAR AND COAL FROM WEST INDIES

Washington, July 27.--A department of commerce report on trade of the Danish West Indies, for whose purchase the United States is negotiating, shows sugar to be the principal article of export, and coal the principal commodity imported.

About $300,000 worth of sugar was sent to the United States last year from St. Croix, the principal agricultural island. The United States sends about $400,000 worth of coal to the islands annually. Manufactured articles, and foodstuffs are purchased from American and European markets.

St. Croix worth $37,000 was purchased on St. Croix in 1914, but only a small part was exported to the United States. Horses, mules and cattle valued at over $700,000, were raised on the island that year but few were exported. A rather small amount of cotton also was shipped out, none to the United States. Incidental products used by the United States were goat and sheepskins, straw paper, bay rum and rice.

The harbor of St. Thomas formerly was the trading center for meat of the West Indies, but the establishment of steamship lines and cable service enabled merchants to deal directly with manufacturers. The result was that the trade of that port now is limited to needs of the adjacent islands.

BANKERS FACING SERIOUS CHARGE

Newark, N. J., July 27.--Warrants for the arrest of Edward H. Hatch, vice-president of the Mutual Trust company of Orange, N. J., closed Monday by the state banking commission, and for Thomas S. Byrne, secretary and treasurer of the institution, were issued here today. They are charged with conspiracy to defraud the bank out of $300,000.

Washington, July 27.--Ambassador Page at London has been instructed to inquire of the British government the cause of detention at Liverpool of Eugene Hughes Kelly of New York, treasurer of the Irish Relief Fund; Mrs. Kelly and Joseph Smith. To anything possible in behalf of the Americans who have been denied permission to remain in England or travel to Dublin.

Similar representations probably will be adopted on behalf of S. S. McClure, the New York publisher, who has been ordered to leave England as soon as the state department receives an official report on the subject.

U. S. ARMY SCOUT CONFESSES CRIME

Guy Hartman, Wanted for Internal Revenue Frauds, Taken to New Mexico Penitentiary.

Columbus, N. M., July 27.--Guy Johnson, United States army scout, who confessed to Captain Louis J. Van Schayck here yesterday that he was Guy Hartman, wanted at Fort Smith, Ark., for internal revenue frauds, committed during 1915, was taken to the Santa Fe, N. M., penitentiary early this morning by United States Marshal A. H. Hudspeth.

After the papers necessary for the prisoner's removal from the state arrived Hartman will be taken to Fort Smith for a hearing.

The cash bond of $20,000 which Hartman jumped just before his trial in May, 1915, has already been declared forfeited. In view of Hartman's past department, it is considered doubtful if he will be again admitted to bail in any amount.

United States Internal Revenue Agent J. S. Barkman, who arrived here last evening from Fort Smith for the purpose of identifying Hartman, and found that the prisoner had already admitted his identity, visited the stockade immediately upon arriving and was cordially greeted by Hartman, who said that he was anxious to waive extradition and go to Fort Smith immediately to have the case over with.

It was originally intended to secure the papers for Hartman's removal to Fort Smith from United States Judge Pope at Santa Fe, N. M., but that official is seriously ill, thus necessitating the sending of the documents to Denver, the next nearest federal district office.

In a brief statement given to The Associated Press before he boarded the train for Santa Fe, Hartman said: "I am a former business partner of mine is responsible for my present plight."

With this he held up two heavily manacled hands, and continued:

"I should have liked to have been at liberty just a little while longer. I might then have had an opportunity to serve my country far more than I am about to do now. I loved my work as scout and believed that I accomplished something during my short time with General Pershing. Back in Leavenworth, or wherever else I shall be located shortly, I can think back occasionally of the red blooded men in the field in Mexico and it will afford me a little happiness to know that once I was one of them."

FALL TELLS STORY TO NOMINEE HUGHES

New York, July 27.--Charles E. Hughes, Republican presidential nominee, in a long conference here today with Senator Fall of New Mexico, received a first and report of conditions along the Mexican border.

Among the nominee's other callers were John C. Eversman, secretary of the Republican congressional campaign committee, and Dwight B. Heard of Arizona, chairman of the Arizona state committee.

GINNELL FORCED TO LEAVE HOUSE

London, July 27, 3:35 p. m.--Laurence Ginnell, Nationalist member of parliament for Northwest Meath, was suspended from the sitting of the house of commons this afternoon, according to the Exchange Telegraph company, for disorderly conduct.

At first Mr. Ginnell refused to leave and the sitting was suspended. Later he withdrew from the house when the sergeant of arms approached him with four attendants. After he had left the chamber the sitting was resumed.

London, July 27, 3:52 p. m.--Laurence Ginnell, Nationalist whose opposition to the government has grown more aggressive since the Irish insurrection and who in questions to cabinet ministers, makes the most serious charges against the government, caused a short suspension of the sitting in the house of commons today by refusing to withdraw when ordered to do so by the speaker of the house.

Mr. Ginnell refused to budge when approached by the sergeant at arms, and not until the sergeant had summoned assistance and his brother Nationalists had advised him to do so, did he obey the speaker's command.

The Nationalist member had asked Herbert Samuel, secretary for home affairs, whether the military authorities at Dublin had the sanction of the government for "bombarding the headquarters of the Cumannannan nurses, cutting the Red Crosses off their dresses and imprisoning them as criminals."

The home secretary categorically denied all the allegations whereupon Ginnell said:

"Owing to the insolent reply of the minister I am withdrawing."

He withdrew the words "insolent" but insisted upon returning the question, whereupon the speaker "named him to the house," and, in accordance with practice, Premier Asquith moved that Ginnell be suspended. Ginnell alone voted against the motion.

CHICAGO ROUNDING UP HALF-WITS

Chicago, July 27.--Because of the "unusual number of subnormal persons" who have been rounded up in Chicago for investigation, the Psychopathic court today will convene at 8:30 a. m. instead of 10 o'clock, the usual hour, according to Dr. James F. Holl, who
